

December 2012

News to Use About Federal Funding from Senator Mark Begich

Dear Friends,

Season's greetings. I'm on my way home to Alaska today to spend some time with family and friends. I'll be looking forward to the extra seconds of daylight we'll start seeing in the coming months, and I know that with those extra few minutes in the day many Alaskans will be working to finish up proposals and applications for grants. I wish I could say I'll be home for a while, but it looks like I'll be back on the plane to Washington in just a few days to keep working on sorting out our nation's fiscal challenge. I know Alaska organizations need a stable economy and federal agencies need predictable funding levels in order to keep providing services to Alaskans, and I'm committed to working with other legislators to find solutions. I'm optimistic that we can come to an agreement on well-placed budget cuts and smart investments that will keep Alaska and the United States great places to live, work and play.

Anchorage Downtown Tree Lighting - Sen. Begich and Jacob join Anchorage residents at the annual tree lighting in town square park.

Let me know if you are applying for federal grant opportunities so I can advocate on your behalf in Washington. You can always get in touch with me through my website or by calling Clare Boersma in Anchorage, (907)271-5915📞, or Cory Turner in Washington, D.C., (202)224-3004📞.

I look forward to hearing from you and I hope to see you next time I'm home.
